Independent Inquiry relating to Afghanistan (IIA)

HQ PM(A) Update: January 2024

Hearings

Looking ahead in 2024, we are ready for a busy year and the next set of open hearings are scheduled in February. These will be looking at Complaints and Concerns and as per the previous open hearings, they will be live-streamed and can be accessed on the IIA's YouTube channel, within the 'Live' category at the following link: https://www.youtube.com/@IndInqrelatingtoAfghanistan.

It is highly likely that before an Easter recess, the Inquiry will start to hear evidence in relation to Deliberate Detention Operations.

Disclosing Information

We continue to reach out to individuals who we require evidence from, in order to fulfil Rule 9 requests from the Inquiry. A Rule 9 evidence request is made under the Inquiries Act 2005 and is a legal notification sent to either individuals or organisations instructing them to provide relevant information or material to a Statutory Inquiry. If you are approached by the Inquiry team please speak to our IIA team at this email address: ARMYPM-IIAGroupmailbox@mod.gov.uk. This will ensure that the right support is in place and enables us to act as a single point of contact, as well as ensuring that the agreed processes and protocols in place for the Inquiry to interact with Core Participants, is adhered to. If you are contacted by the media, you should inform both us (using the HQ PM(A) IIA group mailbox) and the MOD press office, using the following email address: DDC-PR-News@mod.gov.uk. In addition, please note that Col Kristian Rotchell has handed over to Col John Alecock as IIA AH in our Inquiry team.

If you have any information that you believe is relevant to the Inquiry, you may either contact us via the HQ PM(A) IIA group mailbox or you can make direct contact with the Inquiry team using the contact details at this link: https://www.iia.independent-inquiry.uk/contact-us/. If you have any relevant material to share with the Inquiry and wish to remain anonymous, you can use the IIA SecureDrop system. Further information around can be found using the same link as above.

Please continue to monitor your inboxes to ensure that you are up to date with Inquiry related correspondence. If you wish to discuss emails from the Inquiry team, please reach out to the HQ PM(A) IIA group mailbox.

If you are aware of anyone that is affected by the IIA and if they are not already on our communications distribution list, please inform us & we will add them.

The Media

Several personnel have already been contacted by the media in relation to RMP legacy investigations, which is likely to continue as the Inquiry progresses. As all personnel both serving and retired are subject to the Official Secrets Act it is advised that you refer any enquiries to the MOD Press Office who will engage and ensure all enquiries are handled appropriately. Their contact number is: MOD Press Office. +44207 2187 907. You may wish to consider the amount of career detail you post on your social media profile(s), which could be used by journalists to make contact. Further information can be found at the following link to assist you in securing your social media accounts: https://www.ncsc.gov.uk/guidance/social-media-how-to-use-it-safely
